DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Applicant's amendment, filed on 03/18/2005.
2. Claims 1-82 are pending.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-82 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Allan et al (U.S. Pat. No. 6,526,456) in view of Bass et al (U.S Pat. No. 6,744,446).

As per Claims 1, 4-82 Allan substantially discloses a software product that can be freely distributed while limiting its use to authorized subscribers, the method comprising:

a set of users including identify one or more software products that are rented by users in the set (see., abstract, col 1, lines 4-8, col 4, lines 63-67, col 5, lines 1-15);
Authorizing a user in the set to access a software product through the computer network based on whether the software product is identified as a rented software product (see., abstract, col 1, lines 4-8, col 4, lines 63-67, col 5, lines 1-15).

Based on Applicant's arguments mailed on 03/18/2005, Applicant argues that neither Allan nor Reuter fails to disclose the step of assigning a virtual container

(s) to users. However, a newly found prior art Bass discloses a method/apparatus for displaying network (network or online) information to a user connected to a network, and enable a user to configure the network by assigning virtual containers (see., abstract, col 2, lines and 67 and 68, col 3, lines 1-8). It would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the software rental service of Allan by including the limitation detailed above as taught by Bass because this would improve software rental product.

As per claims 2 and 3, Allan discloses the claimed method of identifying the rented software product in the virtual container for a rental period (see., col 9, lines 24-37).

RESPONSE TO ARGUMENTS

5. Applicant's arguments filed on 03/18/2005 have been fully considered but they are moot in view of new ground (s) of rejection.
